

Family Law:

1) Marriage / Divorce

1. Personal Information:
 - Full names of both parties involved in the divorce.
 - Contact details for each party, including phone numbers, email addresses, and home addresses.
 - Preferred method of communication for each party.
2. Marriage Information:
 - Date and location of the marriage.
 - Current residential address of both parties.
 - If applicable, the date of separation.
3. Children:
 - Names and ages of any children from the marriage.
 - Current living arrangements for the children.
 - Any existing custody or visitation arrangements.
4. Grounds for Divorce:
 - What are the grounds for seeking a divorce? (e.g., irreconcilable differences, adultery, abandonment, cruelty)
 - Are both parties in agreement regarding the grounds for divorce?
5. Assets and Debts:
 - Briefly describe the marital assets, including properties, vehicles, bank accounts, investments, and retirement accounts.
 - Are there any significant debts or liabilities accumulated during the marriage?
6. Financial Information:
 - Provide an overview of both parties' income, including employment details and any additional sources of income.
 - Are there any concerns about spousal support or alimony?
7. Children's Issues:
 - What are your preferences regarding child custody and visitation arrangements?
 - Are there any specific concerns or disputes regarding the children's well-being, education, or healthcare?
8. Legal History:
 - Have either party consulted with any other attorneys regarding the divorce?
 - Have any legal actions been taken by either party, such as filing for separation or divorce?

9. Safety Concerns:
 - Are there any concerns about domestic violence, abuse, or the safety of any family members?
10. Client Questions:
 - Do you have any questions or concerns about the divorce process, legal fees, or potential outcomes?

2) Child Custody

1. Personal Information:
 - Full names of the parents involved in the child custody case.
 - Contact details for each parent, including phone numbers, email addresses, and home addresses.
 - Preferred method of communication for each parent.
2. Child Information:
 - Full names and ages of the children involved.
 - Current living arrangements for the children.
 - Are there any existing custody or visitation orders in place?
3. Reason for Seeking Legal Assistance:
 - What specific child custody issues or concerns are you facing?
 - Can you briefly describe the circumstances leading to the need for legal assistance?
4. Current Parenting Arrangements:
 - Describe the current custody or visitation arrangements, if any.
 - How are the parental responsibilities and decision-making shared between the parents?
5. Desired Custody Arrangement:
 - What are your preferences for the custody arrangement?
 - Are you seeking sole custody, joint custody, or a specific visitation schedule?
6. Child's Best Interests:
 - How do you believe your desired custody arrangement serves the best interests of the child/children?
 - Are there any specific factors or considerations you would like to highlight regarding the child's well-being, education, or healthcare?
7. Parenting History:
 - Describe each parent's involvement in the child's life, including caregiving responsibilities and past or present disputes related to parenting.

- Are there any concerns about the other parent's ability to care for the child?
8. Safety Concerns:
- Are there any concerns about the safety or welfare of the child/children in the care of the other parent?
 - Have there been any incidents of domestic violence or abuse?
9. Legal History:
- Have either parent consulted with any other attorneys regarding the child custody matter?
 - Have any legal actions been taken by either parent, such as filing for custody or modifying existing custody orders?
10. Client Questions:
- Do you have any questions or concerns about the child custody process, legal fees, or potential outcomes?

3) Child Support

1. Personal Information:
- Full names of the parents involved in the child support case.
 - Contact details for each parent, including phone numbers, email addresses, and home addresses.
 - Preferred method of communication for each parent.
2. Child Information:
- Full names and ages of the children involved.
 - Are there any existing child support orders in place?
3. Reason for Seeking Legal Assistance:
- What specific child support issues or concerns are you facing?
 - Can you briefly describe the circumstances leading to the need for legal assistance?
4. Custody and Parenting Time:
- Describe the custody arrangement and parenting time schedule currently in place.
 - Are there any disputes or concerns related to the parenting time arrangement?
5. Financial Information:
- Provide an overview of each parent's income, including employment details and any additional sources of income.
 - Are there any concerns about the other parent's financial resources or ability to contribute to child support?
6. Child's Expenses:

- Identify and quantify the child's current and anticipated expenses, including education, healthcare, extracurricular activities, and childcare costs.
7. Child Support Calculation:
 - Is there an existing child support order that needs to be modified, or is this a new case?
 - Are you familiar with the child support guidelines in your jurisdiction?
 - Do you have any information about the other parent's income and financial situation?
 8. Financial Documentation:
 - Have you gathered any financial documents, such as income statements, tax returns, or pay stubs, that could be relevant to the child support case?
 9. Legal History:
 - Have either parent consulted with any other attorneys regarding the child support matter?
 - Have any legal actions been taken by either parent, such as filing for child support or modification of existing child support orders?
 10. Client Questions:
 11. Do you have any questions or concerns about the child support process, legal fees, or potential outcomes?

4) Adoption

1. Personal Information:
 - Full names of the prospective adoptive parents.
 - Contact details for each parent, including phone numbers, email addresses, and home addresses.
 - Preferred method of communication for each parent.
2. Adoption Type:
 - What type of adoption are you considering? (e.g., domestic adoption, international adoption, stepparent adoption, relative adoption)
 - If applicable, provide details about the child you are seeking to adopt (age, gender, specific characteristics, etc.).
3. Adoption Agency or Facilitator:
 - Have you already engaged an adoption agency or facilitator? If yes, provide their contact information.
 - If not, would you like assistance in finding a reputable adoption agency or attorney?
4. Motivation and Background:

- Why have you decided to pursue adoption?
 - Have you considered any other options, such as fertility treatments or surrogacy?
5. Adoption Preferences:
- Are there any specific preferences or criteria you have for the child you wish to adopt? (e.g., age range, ethnicity, special needs, sibling groups)
 - Have you thought about open adoption (maintaining contact with birth parents) or closed adoption (limited or no contact with birth parents)?
6. Adoption Home Study:
- Have you started the adoption home study process? If yes, provide details and contact information of the home study agency or professional.
 - If not, would you like assistance in finding a qualified home study provider?
7. Legal Considerations:
- Are you aware of the legal requirements and procedures for adoption in your jurisdiction?
 - Have you researched any potential legal obstacles or challenges specific to your situation?
8. Financial Planning:
- Have you considered the financial implications of the adoption process, including adoption agency fees, legal fees, travel costs (for international adoption), and post-adoption expenses?
 - Are you aware of any financial assistance or adoption grants available to you?
9. Timeline and Expectations:
- What is your anticipated timeline for completing the adoption process?
 - Are there any specific expectations or concerns you have regarding the adoption journey?
10. Client Questions:
- Do you have any questions or concerns about the adoption process, legal requirements, or potential outcomes?